

1 DAY PLAN

Osaka's Umeda district is packed with things to see.

Take the day to enjoy the area's many landmarks, shopping malls, and restaurants!

11:00 Enjoy panoramic views of Umeda from a Ferris wheel!

@HEP FIVE

With underground malls and large facilities that are linked together like a maze, Umeda is complicated enough that even Japanese visitors lose their way sometimes. A good first step when visiting the area is to enjoy a true "overview" of Umeda from this large Ferris wheel, which has become a landmark.

There's even a company that will take a commemorative photo for you! (Fee applies)

FERRIS WHEEL

See p.7 for more information

フェリス ホイール

This bright red Ferris wheel, which has a diameter of 75 meters, is world's first to be located at a shopping mall. Gondolas pass through the mall's roof on their way to a maximum height of 106 meters, affording riders panoramic views of metropolitan Osaka.

11:00 am to 10:45 pm / See website to find out whether the Ferris wheel is operating. / Fee: ¥500 per person / Credit cards accepted: None / <http://www.hepfive.jp/ferriswheel/>

One of Japan's largest retail stores!

Featuring an extensive selection of products other than electronics, too, including toys, games, and jewelry.

14:00 Check out the latest electronics!

@Yodobashi Camera Umeda
ヨドバシカメラ マルチメディア梅田

Electronics make great souvenirs of your trip to Japan! Yodobashi Camera Umeda in Osaka features one of the largest selections of products in Japan, which makes it a great place to check out the latest and greatest high-quality Japanese electronics. Shop with peace of mind thanks to the store's multilingual staff.

See p.12 for more information

15:30 Take a break at a cafe.

@DIAMOR OSAKA
ディアモール大阪

Umeda is home to plenty of stylish cafes, so take heart if you're tired of walking. Whether you're looking for a well-known, inviting coffee shop or a place serving authentic tea, you're sure to find a favorite spot to relax.

Take a break and enjoy something sweet

See p.12 for more information

Mother leaf

マザーリーフ

The sophisticated, natural interior is furnished with green and wood patterns, making for a relaxing space. Enjoy a freshly-made waffle with flavorful English tea brought straight from Sri Lanka.

With luminous stones underfoot, you'll feel like you're walking through a starry sky.

Enjoy the romance of Osaka's nighttime scenery!

20:30 End your day with Osaka's nighttime scenery!

@UMEDA SKY BUILDING
Floating Garden Observatory
梅田スカイビル・空中庭園展望台

See p.7 for more information

No sightseeing trip to Osaka is complete without enjoying the city's nighttime scenery from the observation platform in the open-air garden on top of the Umeda Sky Building. The 360°, all-sky field of view brings you face to face with a dynamic, fantastic nightscape that is unparalleled in the world.

12:00 Grab some konamon for lunch!

@HANKYU SANBANGAI 阪急三番街

If you're visiting Osaka, a city known for its culinary delights, you won't want to miss the great variety of konamon, or flour-based foods. Examples include okonimiyaki, takoyaki, and udon noodles, and once you've had them, you won't be able to stop eating them. Be sure to experience this quintessential taste of Osaka!

BOTEJYU

ぼてぢゅう

Long-established okonimiyaki shop Botejyu is a great place for lunch. Choose your favorite ingredients and toppings and enjoy a large, filling meal.

See p.15 for more information

There are an endless number of combinations of toppings, so it's fun to come again and again.

The sauce smells great.

Three-yakisoba mix

Ultimate butatama

A center for Kansai's fashion scene

13:00 Window shopping in Chayamachi

@NU chayamachi, NU chayamachi PLUS

Chayamachi is gaining attention as the center of Kansai's fashion scene. More and more young shoppers are flocking to the shopping centers NU chayamachi and NU chayamachi PLUS, located at the heart of the neighborhood that bring together a variety of shops offering everything from casual wear to high fashion.

Onitsuka Tiger

オニツカタイガー

These shoes, whose designs combine functional beauty with fashion, are loved by athletes around the world and gaining popularity.

See p.19 for more information

17:30 Find some souvenirs.

@HERBIS PLAZA ENT
ハービスPLAZA ENT

Now that you've seen most of the sights in Osaka, it's time to find some souvenirs of your visit. Japanese-style miscellaneous goods, cosmetics and drugs, and apparel are all great choices.

ANGERS ravissant

アンジェ ラヴィサント

Angers Ravissant offers a large selection of heartwarming, pleasant-to-the-touch items such as writing supplies and tableware. You're sure to find a favorite item that you'll use for years to come.

See p.23 for more information

Madu

マディ

This housewares shop features products from Japan and abroad with a focus on tableware. Its staff is dedicated to helping customers beautify their dining tables and making their lifestyles more comfortable.

See p.23 for more information

Food so beautiful it's almost a waste to eat!

See p.17 for more information

Japanese Restaurant Osaka Basara

日本料理 大阪ばさら

Enjoy imaginative Japanese cuisine prepared right in front of you by chefs whose delicate, meticulous skills are sure to impress. You'll love just looking at the beautiful presentation of this superbly delicious Japanese cuisine.

Last stop...

18:30 Enjoy Japanese cuisine and sake.

@GRAND FRONT OSAKA
グランフロント大阪

If you're visiting Japan, don't miss Japanese cuisine and sake, or rice wine. Osaka has long played a central role in Japanese food culture, and it's the perfect place to enjoy Japanese cuisine featuring fresh, seasonal ingredients along with sake.